REED FIRES A SHOT

Into the Camp of the Carping House Reformers

EXPOSING THEIR HYPOCRISY

The Deceit of Democratic Leaders Sharply Pictured and Their Duplicity Roundly Denounced.

Washington, May 12.—The house spent another day in consideration of the sundry civil bill, covering about twenty-five pages. One or two incidents of interest occurred to the committee of interest occurred to the committee on appropriation which had inserted provisions that articles imported for the use of the lighthouse establishments and for the national museum should be admitted free of duty. These were stricken out on points of order made by Mr. Burrows (republican) of Michigan that they were not germane, did not reduce expenses, and changed existing laws. Late in the afternoon, Mr. Reed alluding to the refusal of the majority to explain the reductions made in the bill, made a speech saying that there was no explanation to give but that of brute force by a majority of 3 to 1.

Mr. Bailey of Texas moved to strike out all the section relating to the park. Pending a vote, Mr. Butier of Iowa referring to Mr. Cogwell's statement that the republicans had no desire to obstruct the consideration of the bill, but did desire to have explations from the majority of the committees as to why the great reductions proposed were made, said: "Of conree, that statement implied that the republican members misended to observe the relations of the publican members inspired to observe the republican members inspired to observe the relations of the publican members inspired to observe the republican members inspired to observe the resulting the republican members inspired to observe the resulting to the republican members inspired to observe the resulting to the resulting t statement implied that the republican members intended to obey the rules of the house and vote on all questions." He intended to obey the rules of the house and vote on all questions. He desired to call the attention of the country to the fact that the last vote showed but three republican members in the house attending to their busi-

Mr. Reed-Now that is a very touch ing statement. [Langhter-] I think my friend from Massachusetts (Mr. Cogawell) is not at all right in the position which he has taken. Mr. Holman should afford an explanation to his house for his action Habsan's this house for his action. He han't any. [Laughter.] That is the reason why he is silent. The only explanation that can really be given is a simple one, and he does not like what it is. I am going to do it simply because I have had experience and have seen this thing time and again. If we could only attract in some way or other this thing time and again. If we could only attract in some way or other the attention of the people of this country to performances like this I think we would get rid of them, but unfortunately if there is anything that this country does not care about, it is the house of representatives and the senate [laughter]. You can see that by the hands they have recently put the house in [laughter]. Now I have seen this performance at least ten times—a great many times under the leadership of a very great man whose tactics today are being imitated by the present chairman of the committee on appropriations. Having no reason to give except the reason of brute force, he gives that. Three to one—that is the argument in favor of these appro-

Mr. Butler-It counts just the same. Mr. Reed-There are three of you to one of us. There is no other reason the face of the earth except that Now what is the purpose demonstrated here? The object, the purpose, is to deceive the people of the United States as to the action of the democratic party. It is an attempt to ob-tain the good will of the American people upon their economic side without actually benefitting them in the least in the world. Nobody knows bet ter than the chairman of the committee on appropriations, at this minute, that all these appropriations that we are going through now have to be revised and have got to be added to by the senate of the United States in accordance with their official duty, which they will have to perform. He knows that the government will not be starved, because the senate will put on the amendments and a decent little performance with a national cornish, he will accept many of will go to the country and say: ',Look, see what a profligate senate." [Great laughter.] This is the tenth repetition within my recollection of this kind of business. Is it not too bad to be doing this? [Great laughter.]

The appropriations came in here with the appropriations came in here with the appropriations. A proportion of one of them was stricken out under the rules of the house and they declined to slopt the amendment necessary to up for themselves, they stand con-demned out of their own months and yet here they are. This exposition of it would not make any difference, nor have the elightest hope that I shall attract the strention of the country to it.

thing more truthful than that.

Mr. Reed—I have never said anything unthoughtfully, and I have said a great many truthful things in in this house, as the gentleman from Virginia knows. Mr. Chairman, I think we had better go into particulars. I sincerely hope that the gentleman from Indiana will attempt something for decency's mke that looks like an ex-

The motion of Mr. Bailey to strike sit was defeated.
Mr. Inckerson of Kentucky offered. Mr. Discovering of Kentucky offered an amendment providing for the repeal of the law establishing the National pard, of Rock Creek but it was ruled out on the point of order that it was not germane. At 5.35, the committee roce and the house adjourned.

Senate Proceedings.

Washinstron, May 12.—The senate today disposed of the naval appropriations up to the point where the increase of the navy and the proposed new battleships come in. Discussion of the disputed matters was postponed until tomorrow. Ameng the committee amendments adopted was one appropriating $50,000 as a starter for the Columbian naval rendezvous and review, and $26,000 for the League Island navy yard, Philadelphia.

HAWAIIAN ANNEXATION.

The Islanders Said to Be Anxious Come with Us.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 12 .- From passengers on the Mariposa, which arrived today, it was learned that on the 28th inst. the Hawanan legislature will meet, and that the most important subject to come before that body will be the question of annexation to the United States. From what can be gathered the proposition seems to meet with favor, and it is not considered a hard matter to determine the outcome if the legislature submits the question to the people. The sugar planters are working for annexation and are using all means to carry it to a successful tants of the islands is necessary to insure its success when the legislature meets. It is understood the matter will be brought before it at the earliest possible date, but considerable time will be allowed to clapse before it is finally disposed of. The reason given for this is to allow a full and free discussion of the subject, and indirectly the legisla-ture desires to learn the will of the people before taking action. The planters are said to be making many converts, and if the general sentiment counts for anything at this time, an-nexation will be voted on favorably.

OFF FOR THE SEA COAST. Mrs. Harrison Will Be Taken to Virginia Beach Today.

WASHINGTON, May 12 .- Owing to the cloudy weather the president did not take Mrs. Harrison to the sea shore today, but expects to start tomorrow.

The party will go down the Potomac river either in a private yacht or in the lighthouse steamer Jessamine proceeding by easy stages to Norfolk, Va., whence the party will proceed to Virginia beach. Mrs. Harrison will remain there until she recovers her strength.

New Public Buildings.

WASHINGTON, May 12 .- The house committee on public buildings and grounds today ordered favorable reports on bills for public buildings at the following places: Columbus, Ind., $40,000; Steubenville, O., $15,000; Selma, Ala., $50,000; McKeesport, Pa., $50,000. Allentown, Pa., $60,000.

The book has been edited and an introduction written for it by George F. Parker, who has long held cordial relations with the ex-president. It will consist of twenty-five chapters and will include selections from Mr. Cleveland's public papers as mayor of Buffalo, governor of New York and president of the United States; speeches delivered by Mr. Cleveland since the beginning of his public career and a large number of letters all classified according to subjects. The book will be an o ctave of about 600 pages.

CAPITOL BUILDING BURNED. New Mexico's Magnificent Buildin

Razed by Fire. SANTA FE, May 12 .- At 8 o'clock this evening smoke was seen usuing from the roof of an attic near the base of the south dome of New Mexico's magnificent capitol building. Crizens at once appeared on the scene, but it was evident that the building was doomed. All hands at once stripped the building of furniture, carpets, law library and every movable article on the two lower floors. The vaults are uninjured. Owing to a quarrel in the late legislature no money was appointed to pay for insurance and the policies were allowed to expire. The building was valued at $250,000 and is a total loss. nificent capitol building. Citizens at

OPPOSITION TO PROTESTANTS

From the Irish Members Endangers the Cause and Helps Salisbury to Stir Up Dissensions.

LONDON, May, 12 .- The war of the Irish factions is assuming a form that will wreck the home rule cause if it is not speedily stopped. Besides the two principal factions there are gradually forming other smaller ones. The fight between Dillon and Healey is steadily between Dillon and Healey is steadily drifting toward an open rupture in the McCarthyite party, and some of the personal quarrels among the majority are getting into the courts.

Garrett M. Byrne (McCarthyite), M. P., for West Wicklow, who sued Justid McCarthy and V. P. O'Connor, the anti-Parnellite leader, for £130 for aervices as agent in selling the lease of the national league premises at Westminister for £1000, was given a verdict today for £120. Byrne was the occastoday for £120. Byrne was the occas-ion of the first serious rebuff which the late Mr. Parnell received. He was nominated for Wexford in 1880, and was opposed by a combination of nationalist and some of the younger country priests with "Chevalier" O'-Clery, on the ground that he had always sneered at the national movement. The trouble culminated in a serious riot at Enniscarthy in the course of which Parcell's trousers were torn of which Parnell's trousers were torn while he was standing on the platform. Byrne was elected, but it was deemed wise to run him for another consti

The anti-Parnellite convention for The anti-Parnellite convention for Queens county has named a candidate to contest each of the two divisions of the county against the Parnellite members who now represent them. The Leix division is represented by Richard Lalor, a large tenant farmer who is head of one of the ancient Celtic families of the district a brother of families of the district, a brother of James Finian Lalor, one of the mos brilliant writers of the "Young Ireland" brilliant writers of the "Young Ireland" revolutionary school, the friend of John Mitchel, and the real author of the doctrines of land tenure, for the discovery of which Michael Davitt gets credit. Mr. Lalor's father was for a time member for the county during Daniel O'Connell's time. The Ossory division is respresented by William A. McDonald, who is a Protestant nationalist, a university graduate and a man of fine literary attainments, although blind. Pierce Mahony, another Protestant nationalist and university graduate, who sits for North Meath, will according to an announcement made according to an announcement made at a meeting at Navan, at which John Dillon and Michael Davitt spoke, be also opposed. So will Henry Harrison, member for North Tipperary, a Pro-testant graduate of Oxford, whose was hanged as a rebel in 1798; Thomas Rochford Maguire, a Protestant des-cendant of the MacGuires of Fermancendant of the MacGuires of Ferman-nagh, another Oxford graduate who represents North Donegal, and others. They will not be opposed for the reason that they are Protestants, but because they are Parnellities and have pro-clamied their denial of the right of any Englishman to interfere in the sele-tion of the leader of the Irish party.

Will Lose Some Seats, Other Protestants, such as Swift Mo-Neill, Knox and Jordon, who opposed Parnell and who are more British Parnell and who are more British liberals than Irish nationalists, will not be opposed. But the effect will be all the same as if the Protestant Parnellities were opposed on account of their religion. It will decide many a wavering vote among the Protestant farmers in Ulster and will bave a very bad effect on the Englishnon conformiats, who have got over the O'Shea scandal, for which, in their eyes, Parnell's marriage atoned, and who, with all their belief in Gladstone, do not care to see the Catholic hierarchy, or any other hierarchy, play too prom-inent a part in politics, and who are still liable to be influenced by the cry of "danger from Rome." All the Parnellites will be opposed, and as many of these hold Ulster seats—like Alexander Blane, of South Armagh; William Redmond, of South Fermanagh; James J. Dalton, of West Donegal, and Sir Joseph McKenna of South Monaghan—the nationalist spilt will infallibly throw some of the seats will infallibly throw some of the seats into the hands of the tories. The Par-nellites are threatening retaliation by opposing Justin McCarthy in London-derry, his son in Newry, Thomas Sex-ton in West Belfast and others. These fratricidal contests will certainly result in destroying the present nationalist majority in Ulster and may give the tories from five to ten seats, thus depriving the nationalists of one of their strongest arguments with English voters. The only thing that can pre-vent this suicidal warfare is strong pressure from America, and there is no doubt that if both factions would unite they could capture three more Ulster seats and secure a majority of the from that province. This, with the retention of all the present Protestant member, Parnellite or McCarthyite, would completely offset Salisbury's attempt to rekindle the flames of sectarian bigotry, instead of supplying him with plausible pretexts, as the factionists are doing at present.

BISHOPS ARE NOTIFIED.

The Vatican Sends Its Decision on the School Question. ROME, May 12 .- The Osservators Romano yesterday printed a letter addressed by the propaganda fide to the American bishops in regard to Archbishop Ireland's educational plan. The letter declares that the holy see always has been solicitous for thealthy education of the youth, especially in the United States, as has been evidenced by the instructions given in 1875. Following them the third Baltimore council, anxions to preserve the youth from vice and error, wisely resolved to open schools in connection with each church and to teach in them to Catholic children letters, fine arts, religion and manners. Some persons believed that the action of Archbishop Ireland in the two celebrated cases were irreconcilable with the resolutions of the Baltimore council and blamed him for it, while others approved of it. The controversy became bitter, and what was still more regrettable, was partially carried on in the public newspapers. A termination of this controversy and a union of the contending parties being necessary to the selfare and dignity of the character of an order to secure her recomment if was necessary to again by her before the court, and there pleadings and appeals created a ser union of the contending parties being necessary to the selfare and dignity of the church, especially so far as its prelates were concerned, the hely see thought that a convenient stage of the question had been reached for ending the controversy by judgment upon the whole matter. The cardinals, after pondering deeply upon the subject and diligently examining and considering Archbishop Ireland's action in every respect, at the same time weighing the particular circumstances, ways and conditions of the arrangements under the Faribault-Stillwater pian, gave on April 21 this judgment, which the pope on the same day adopted. The letter then quotes the text of the judgment of the cardinals, which upholds the decrees of the Baltimore council concerning parochial schools, but adds that, under the circumstances, the arrangements made by Archbishop Ireland in the Faribault-Stillwater plan can be tolerated.

can be tolerated. The letter then proceeds to say that that the holy see profits by the opportunity to promote the welfare of Catholic souls by counseling renewed exertions to keep the church united.

ENGLAND IS WILLING. Ready to Join an International Silver Conference.

LONDON, May 12 .- The Rt. Hon.

George J. Goschen, chancellor of the exchequer, announced to a number of bi-metallic deputations that waited upon him yesterday that England would accept the invitation of the United States to take part in an international conference to discuss the sil ver question. Replying to the deputa-tions Mr. Goschen said that Great Britain had received an invitation on Monday last from the United States to send delegates to a conference for the purpose of examining into what meas-ures could be taken to increase the use tuen y in 1886 on account of his unpopularity. He was one of the first to desert Parnell when the present split occured.

It would be seen that in accepting the invitation the government would not commit itself in any actual principle. The way to any actual principle. The United States government had doubt-less framed the invitation in a manner to make it easy for the variou countries invited to accept. In arriving at this decision the government had been guided by consideration for such large industries as were represented by members of the deputation. The gov-ernment, he said, would also bear in mind the views and interests of India. mind the views and interests of India. The fact that the government would accept the invitation imposed upon it a discretion which he was sure the deputations would appreciate. In conclusion Mr. Goschen stated that the government was prepared, so far as it lay in its power, to consider the views of its deputations. He trusted that the conference would go far in the direction of arriving at a fatisfactory conclusion of a vexed question, and that it would meet all the difficulties that had been raised. Mr. Goschen's statemen was greeted with long applause. Lord Salisbury and Mr. Balfour were present when Mr. Goschen received the deputations, which included representatives of the chambers of sommerce, tatives of the chambers of commerce bankers and manufacturers, and mem bers of trades unions.

Anarchists Place Several Bombs on the Street Railway Rrack.

VIENNA, May 12 .- Consternation was caused last evening in Buda Pesth by the explosion of a dynamite cartridge beneath an electric tram car. The car was full of passengers and the dyna-mite cartridge exploded with a deafen-ening report, shattering a wheel and nearly overturning the car. When the passengers had got over their panic, no one being severely hurt, it was dis-covered that seven more cartridges lay along side the track which had not expioded. Numerous anarchists have thronged Buda Pesth lately from var ious parts of Germany, the authoritie of Hungary not being so severe in deal ing with them as those in Vienna and Berlin. Today, however, there is a general determination to institute measures for the suppression of San Francisco, Cal., May 12 .- Among the passengers by the steamer Mariposa, which arrived from Australia today, were Captain and Mrs. Daly of the American ship W. H. Lincoln, which was burned in Sydney harbor after ar-riving from Tacoma with 1,270,000 feet of lumber as a cargo. All the timber had been discharged at the timber the fire save about 40,000 feet. Captain Daly discharged several longshoremen after they had insisted upon an increase in wages, and that night the ship took fire and sank. Captain Daly thinks his vessel was fired for revenge.

Likely to be a Scandal. BERLIN, May, 12 .- The conviction has gained ground here in the last three days that rector Ahlwardta charges against the Leewes are about to create the most gigantic military scan dal that the continent has known since the famous melioite case in France. At first the government professed to ignore Aniwardt's pamphlet allowing that the Leewes by bribery had passed off on the army 425,000 defective rifles. In view of the source from which it came, the antisemetic party urges, however, that the charges were so specific that some measures must be

The Wife and Daughter of an Iowa Farmer Killed

BY A MAN NAMED DOOLEY

While the Husband and Father Was Away-His Awful Discovery on Return-Dooley Has Disapppeared.

CORNING, Iowa, May 12.-Word has just reached this city by telephone an-nouncing that a norrible murder had been committed near Precott, a small town seven miles east of here, on Wednesday. On that morning William Coons, a farmer and an old and respectable resident of this county, left his home on business, leaving his wife and daughter and a hired man named Dooley, said to be a brother-in-law of Coons, at home. Mr. Coons returned about 4 o'clock this evening to find his house apparently deserted. Search, however, soon revealed the horrible remains of his wife and daughter, who mains of his wife and daughter, who had evidently been beaten to death with a club. Dooley has disappeared as has also a team belonging to Coons. Suspicion points to him as being the murderer. No reason is assigned for the terrible crime. Sheriff Eldridge and a large number of citizens have just left for the scene of the murder and an inquest will be held at once. The neighborhood is wild with excitement and a lynching will surely result.

Relief Squads at Work at Roslyn-

SEARCHING FOR THE DEAD. Money and Help Freely Extended. ROSLYN, Wash., May 12 .- The work of bringing out the bodies of those killed in Tuesday's disaster is being carried on day and night as fast as brave hearts and willing hands can accomplish it. Five more bodies were taken out at 2:30 this morning. The rescuers have been working incessantly for the past forty-eight hours and are wirn out, but they cannot be persuaded to cease work until all the bodies of their friends and fellow workmen have been recovered. Gas has congregated in vast clouds at the bottom of the Slope owing to fresh air being driven in and driving the gas before it. It would not be surprising should another explosion take place at any moment. It is thought by experienced men that if another explosion does occur the Slope will be badly damaged and the reaching of the other todies rendered impossible badly damaged and the reaching of the other bodies rendered impossible for perhaps weeks. The managers of the mine think that if nothing intervenes the bodies will all be recovered by midnight. At a meeting of citizens last night a finance committee was appointed to receive funds that are beginning to come in. A committee was also chosen to see that the relief fund was rightly apportioned to the widows and orphans in need. A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the burial of the dead. Today at 10 a. m. the bodies of twelve victims were interred, 6the funeral cortege starting from the Unity hall where the sermon was preached over the bodies of the dead men. The funeral procession was a large ore. The Knights of Pythias, I. O. O. F., I. O. G. T. and the Masons dressed in full regalia were in attendance. Mrs. Sarah Perkins of Cleveland waved investigating. All precautions are being taken by the coal company to relieve the destitution and prevent further ac-cident and to effect an entrance to the cident and to effect an entrance to the dead miners with all possible haste without endangering the lives of the relief squads. The company has thrown open its store and all those in need of aid have but to apply for what they want. Telegrams of condolence and relief are being received by the mayor here.

Portland has sent $500 and many other cities have contributed. A heavy rain has been falling for the past forty-eight hours. Widows and children are becoming more quiet as the time passes, but there is still a large crowd around the mouth of the mine waiting for their loved ones to be brought forth. Their grief on seeing the charred and bruised remains of hus-bands, fathers and brothers brought forth is heartrending. Many strangers are in the city, some brought thither by cursosity and to render what assist ance is possible. Another large funeral will take place tomorrow.

The charge was drunkenness Among the papers in the old gentle-man's possession is a letter which an-nounces that the bearer is George nounces that the bearer is George Burns, aged 60 years, formerly engineer of the Essex, and later captured and sent to Libby prison. At the close of the war he was appointed engineer of the warship Savannah, occupying that position at the time the boat ran on the rocks at Gray's Head in 1884. Sticking to his post he re-ceived injuries which would have resulted fatally to any ordinary mortal, and left a remarkable example of the ways of providence. In his head he wears a six-ounce silver plate, three ribs are gone from the right side, the right knee cap has been removed and the right hip bone and some of the small upper bones of the right leg are missing. In the right wrist there is no pulsation and the right elbow joint has disappeared. The most remarkable re-versal of the natural order is the transfer of the heart from the left side to the right. The Sensational Carpenter Case Settled by the Rhode Island Supreme Court. New PROVIDENCE, R. I., May 12 .- By the settlement of the Carpenter case in the supreme court here one of the most famous suits ever entered upon the docket of a Rhode island court Came to an end. Eight years ago Elizabeth H. Carpenter, wife of Horace F. Carpenter, one of the wealthiest gold refiners of New Eugland, was placed in an insane asylum upon complaint of her husband and the affidavita of two reputable physicians. A year ago she managed to escape and came to her sister's home in this city. She was recaptured in a few hours by officers from the institution, but in order to secure her recommitment it was necessary to again bring her before the court, and there her pleadings and appeals created a sensation. She threw herself at the feet of the judge and implored him not to send her back to the asylum. She declared that she was sane and was the victim of a cruel plot on the part of her husband, who wished to deprive her of her property. The sympathies of Senator Albert R. Sherman of Pawtucket were aroused. He engaged an attorney and secured Mrs. Carpenter's presence before the supreme court on a writ of habeas corpus. After a fierce legal battle Mrs. Carpenter was declared cane and ordered released. Mrs. Carpenter then, under advice of Senator Sherman, commenced a suit for divorce against her husband and another to recover her property. By the settlement Mrs. Carpenter is divorced from her husband and he is ordered to allow her $25 a week for the remainder of Ner life out of the property she claimed. Mr. Carpenter is a member of the various jeweiry societies, both in this city and New York, and has a wide reputation as a geologist.

NEW YORK, May 12.—A cablegram from Southampton says that the steamship Fuerat Bumarck has lowered the eastern record by nineteen minutes, making the trip from New York to the Needles in six days twelve hours and fifty-eight minutes. The former eastward record between in New York and Southampton, which was beaten by the Fuerat Bismarck today, was six days twelve hours and fifty-eight minutes. It was made by the same steamship in June, 1891. The Fuerat Bismarck also holds the westward record between the two ports. She has made the passage in six days aix hours and forty-four minutes. The steamship has been steadily breaking records since she was launched. She made the fastest maiden trip on record and soon gained the record for both the eastward and the westward passages between Mew York and Southampthe eastward and the westward passages between Mew York and Southampton. are that it will come. The people are preparing for the worst. Captain Toiinger, the government engineer, reports leves along the Opposit Tork, seventeen miles telow here, all right.

Damage at Jefferson City.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 12.—The Missouri river here is rising. All the afternoon it has been going upward at a rate of over an inch an heur. It is now bank-full and a very little more rise means flood and damage. The Callaway bottoms are already inundated in places and all work on the government improvements has been suspended. Great damage is threatened to farmers. Not since 1883 has the "Big Muddy" been so high as now and the rise from present indications threatens to go beyond all previous record.

Higher Than in Year MARSHALL, Mo., May 12.-The Mic-Marshall, Mo., May 12.—The Missouri here, at Mismi and at Arrow Rock is higher than in years. Immense crop and farm property damage has already been done at Arrow Rock and more is threatened, as the river a still rising. Thousands of acres of wheat are submerged and all farmers in the bottoms have been forced to fly, their houses being floodled. Many received the warning too late and it work of rescue is now being pushed too boats.

Passed the Danger Line. KANSAS CITY, May 12 .- The KANSAS CITY, May 12.—The danger line has been passed and the flood is increasing every minute. The Missouri river is now a raging torrent, and the town of Harlem is being covered. All the low lying parts of Kansas City, Kan., are now under water, and in many cases the people were taken from their houses in boats, while everal were compelled to wade through water up to their waists.
